

a: interj.; ah

a, ab, abs: prep. w. abla.; by, from Áaron -oriis, or indecl.: m.; Aaron, brother of Moses ábacus -i: m.; small table for cruets, credence, shelf in wall near altar abaliéno -are: (1); alienate, go away, depart, separate, remove, legally transfer abámíta -ae: f.; female ancestor, sister of ábavus -i: m.; great-great-grandfather, ancestor, forefather

Ábba: indecl.; Aramaic; Father ábbas -abbatis: m.; abbot abbátia -ae: f.; abbey, abbacy abbatiális -is -e: pertaining to an abbot or abbey abbátia nullius: abbey exempt from ecclesiastical jurisdiction abbatíssa -ae: f.; abbess abbreviátor -or is: m.; one who makes abstracts from papal bulls abbrévio -are: (1); shorten, cut off, abbreviate Abdías -ae: m.; Obadiah, a minor prophet; a book of the O.T. abdicátio -onis: f.; a renouncing, disowning abdico -are: (1); renounce, abandon, give up abdíco -ere -dixi -dictum: (3); disapprove of abditum -i: n.; hidden place, lair, secret ábditus -a -urn: concealed, hidden ábdo -ere -didi -ditum: (3); hide, conceal, secrete abdúco -ere -duxí -ductum: (3); lead away, carry away, seduce abecedárium -ii: n.; the alphabet abecetuórium - ii: n.; the act of tracing Greek and Latin alphabets on the floor while consecrating a church

Ábel: -elis, or indecl., Abelus -i: m.; Abel ábeo -ire -ivi -itum: (4); go away aberrátio -onis: f.: relief from anything irksome, diversion abérro -are: (1); go astray, wander ab extrínseco: from the outside, externally ab hómine: by or from a man; ecclesiastical penalty inflicted by a judge abhórreo -horrere -horruí: (2); shrink back or away from

Abías -ae: m.; Abia abiégnus -a -urn: of fir ábies -etis: f.; fir tree abietáriu -ii: m.; carpenter ábigo -ere - egi -actum: (3); banish, drive away ab inítio: from the beginning ab intrínseco: from the inside, internally Ábiron: indecl.; Abiram, a conspirator against Moses and Aaron ábitus -us: m.; departure abjécte: cowardly abjéctio -onis: f.; outcast; casting out abjício (abicio) -ere -jeci -jectum: (3); refuse, throwaway, cast off, debase, degrade, abandon abjúdico -are: (1); take away by judgment, deny an oath abjúngo -ere -junxi -iunctum: (3); unlock, unloose abjurátio -onis: f.; abjuration, foreswearing, denial under oath, perjury abjúro -are: (1); deny an oath, perjure ablácto -are: (1); wean ablátor -oris: m.; one who takes away ablátus -a -urn: perf pass. part. of aúfero ablegátio -onis: f.; a sending away ablégo -are: (1); send off or away, remove ábluo -ere -lui -lutum: (3); wash, cleanse ablútio -onis: f.; washing, ablution, pouring on, mixture of water and wine in the liturgy abnegátio -onis: f.; denial abnegátivus -a -urn: negative abnegátor -oris: m.; a denier ábnego -are: (1); deny, refuse, be unwilling abnórmis -is -e: unconventional, abnormal, irregular ábnuo -ere -ui -uitum: (3); deny, refuse by nod of the head, reject abnúto -are: (1); deny repeatedly, refuse often by nod of the head abóleo -ere -evi -itum: (2); destroy, abolish, terminate abolésco -ere -evi: (3); decay little by little, vanish, cease abolítio -onis: f.; a removing, abolition, annulling, withdrawal abólla -ae: f.; thick woolen cloak abominábilis -is -e: detestable, hateful, worthy of destruction abominátio -onis: f.; detestation, aversion, loathing abóminor -ari: dep. (1); abhor, hate, detest, loath abórior -iri -ortus: dep. (4); disappear, pass away, set, miscarry, fail abortívus -a -urn: untimely, prematurely born, abortive abórtus -us: m., abortivum -i: n.; abortion, miscarriage ábra -ae: f.; maid abrádo -radere -rasi -rasum: (3); rub off, take away, erase Abrahámus -i, indecl. in the Psalms: m.; Abraham abrenunciátio -onis: f.; repudiation, renouncing abrenúntio -are: (1); renounce abrípío -ere -ripui -reptum: (3); drag or tear away abrogátio -o nis: f.; revocation, formal repeal; ábrogó -are: (1); revoke, abrogate, annul abrúmpo -ere -rupi -ruptum: (3); loosen, separate, break abrúptio -onis: f.; a tearing away, a rending asunder, a divorce abrúptus -a -um: steep, precipitous, broken off from, separated abs: prep. w. abla.; by, from Ábsalom: Absalom, son of David and Maacah abscédo -ere -cessi -cessum: (3); retire, depart abscéssio -onis: f.; separation, a going away abscéssus -us: m.; death abscído -ere -cidi -cissum: (3); cut off abscíndo -ere -cidi -scissum: (3); tear away, cut off abscónditum -i: n.; a hidden place or thing; in abscóndito: in secret abscónditus -a -urn: hidden, concealed, secret, unknown, obscure, out of sight; abscóndite: adv.

abscondo -ere -didi -ditum: (3); hide, conceal abscónsio -onis: f.; a shelter abscónsus -a -urn: hidden, secret, concealed, unknown ábsens -entis: absent; pres. part. of ábsurn abséntia -ae: f.; absence absída -ae: f.; apse, apsis absidátus -a -urn: vaulted, arched absidiále -is: n., absidióla -ae: f.; a smaller apse flanking a larger one absílio -ire: (4); leap up, jump up; fly away absímilis -is -e: unlike, dissimilar absínthium -ii: n., absinthíus -ii: m. ábsis -idis: f.; apse absísto -ere -stiti: (3); be exiled, cease, depart, withdraw ábsit: God forbid, far be it absolútio -onis: f.; absolution, forgiveness, sacramental remission of sin absolutórius -a -urn: of or relating to absolution or acquittal absolútus -a -urn: perfect, complete, absolute; absolute: adv.

absólvo -ere -solvi -solutum: (3); absolve, pardon, release, forgive absónus -a -urn: unsuitable, incongruous; discordant absorbeo -ere -ui -orptum: (2); swallow, gulp, absorb ábsque: prep. w. abla.; without, apart from abstémius -a -urn: temperate, abstemious, abstaining abstérgeo -ere -tersi -tersum: (2); blot out, wipe away abstérreo -ere: (2); frighten away, deter, remove ábstinens -entis: temperate, abstinent abstinéntia -ae: f.; abstinence, moderation, not eating certain foods abstíneo -ere -ui -tenturn: (2); abstain, hold back, refrain abstráctio -onis: f.; detachment, removal ábstraho -ere -traxi -tractum: (3); bring forth, drag or draw away abstrúdo -ere -usi -usum: (3); hide, conceal ábsum -esse, afui, afuturum: be absent, be away absúmo -ere -sumpsi -sumptum: (3); take away, lessen, destroy; consume absúrde: absurdly, irrationally, discordantly absúrditas -atis: f.; incongruity, absurdity absýnthium -ii: n.; wormwood, absynth Ábula -ae: f.; Avila abúndans -antis: rich, abundant, overflowing, abounding in, copious; abundánte, abúnde: adv.; abundántius: comp. adv.

abundántia -ae: f.; abundance, plenty, prosperity, richness abúndo -are: (1); abound, overflow, be rich, have abundance of abúsio -onis: f.; scorn, contempt abúsor -oris: m.; abuser abúsus -us: m.; wasting, using up, consuming, abuse, misuse abutor -uti -usum: dep. (3); abuse, misuse, destroy abyssus -i: f.; abyss, the depths, the sea; place of the dead a capella: in chapel style, without musical accompaniment ac: and, as academia -ae: f.; academy, college acadernicus -a -urn: academic Accaronitae -arum: m. pl.: people of Accaron or Ekron acatholicus -a -urn: non-Catholic; acath6lice: adv.

accedit -ere: (3); impers.; it is added accedo -ere -cessi -cessum: (3); approach, come near, accede, approve, assent to acceleratio -onis: f.; hastening accelero -are: (1); hurry, hasten